

Title: Demand response jakarta

Generated on: 2026-05-04 17:46:23

Copyright (C) 2026 ALEXANDRA BESS. All rights reserved.

-----

Why have protests continued in Jakarta?

Some students and civil society groups suspended their protests to "avoid increased violent escalation by authorities," but peaceful protests have continued in Jakarta and elsewhere. Many protesters and organizers have gone into hiding fearing arrest on treason or terrorism charges.

What happened at Metro Jaya regional police headquarters in Jakarta?

A crowd stages a demonstration in front of the Metro Jaya Regional Police Headquarters in Jakarta, Indonesia, today. The former general said he has been closely monitoring developments surrounding the protests, and said he has ordered a thorough investigation.

What happened at a 'Molotov cocktail' protest in Jakarta?

A 'Molotov cocktail' burns and a firework explodes whilst police personnel confront demonstrators during a labour union protest for improving working conditions, near the Parliament in Jakarta yesterday. Link Copied!

Why did protesters fire a fence at Jakarta Metro Jaya headquarters?

Protesters set fire to the fence of the Jakarta Metro Jaya Headquarters building on August 29, 2025, in Jakarta while demanding police reform. Tempo/Dinda Shabrina

These demands, summarized as the &quot;17+8 Demands from the People,&quot; are a direct response to widespread dissatisfaction expressed on social media since the demonstrations began ...

The protests began on 25 August, with thousands demonstrating outside parliament against a housing allowances for MPs that was nearly 10 times the minimum wage in Jakarta.

group of social media influencers and online activists from the "17+8 People's Demands" movement staged a protest in front of the House of Representatives on Thursday, listing a series of...

On August 28, scores of labor unions and student groups organized large protests in Jakarta and other cities, mostly concentrated around regional parliament buildings, demanding ...

Violent antigovernment protests against a range of cost-of-living issues have roiled Indonesia, and anger boiled over after the killing of a motorcycle taxi driver who was hit by a police ...

On Monday, hundreds of low-income residents from subsidized apartments, known locally as rusun, gathered outside City Hall to protest soaring water tariffs imposed under the 2024 ...

TEMPO , Jakarta - The Indonesian Women's Alliance (API) has raised six demands addressed to President Prabowo Subianto during a protest in front of the Main Gate of the parliament ...

JAKARTA - Thousands of demonstrators hurled stones and set off firecrackers in Jakarta's second major protest this week, fuelled by increasing public anger over a hefty allowance ...

Website: <https://www.lesfablesdalexandra.fr>

