

Drilling site uses North Korean folding container 25kW

Source: <https://www.lesfablesdalexandra.fr/Tue-09-Feb-2021-13425.html>

Title: Drilling site uses North Korean folding container 25kW

Generated on: 2026-03-01 10:34:35

Copyright (C) 2026 ALEXANDRA BESS. All rights reserved.

A drillship participating in a major resource exploration project in the East Sea began its first drilling operation early Friday, the state-run oil company said, marking the full-fledged start...

Recent commercial satellite imagery of the Nampho Port, one of North Korea's largest commercial ports, shows that the petroleum, oil, and lubricant (POL) storage area is being expanded ...

The West Capella drilling ship, owned by Seadrill, is expected to arrive at Busan port around Dec. 10 and proceed to the "Blue Whale" drilling site, about 50 kilometers east of Pohang. ...

Satellite images indicate that North Korea is building more oil tanks at the port of Nampo. The images also seem to show North Korean ships engaging in illegal transfers of oil.

The West Capella, a drilling vessel in charge of exploratory drilling, is currently docked on the Riau Islands in the Mlaka Sea Council. It departs this month and arrives in Busan around the ...

New satellite imagery suggests North Korea is expanding a key port, with analysts pointing to recent additions that could increase the site's capacity to import oil and receive naval ...

A drillship tasked with initiating the drilling operation for a major gas and oil exploration project in the East Sea arrived Monday at an offshore anchorage near the southeastern port city of...

A drillship participating in a major gas and oil development project in the East Sea arrived at its first drilling site Tuesday, as it prepares to begin exploration operations amid growing ...

Website: <https://www.lesfablesdalexandra.fr>

