Is Huawei a member of Solarpower Europe?

SolarPower Europe has removed Chinese tech giant Huawei as a member, marking the first time the Brussels-based solar industry association has taken such action, an SPE spokesperson has told pv magazine. The board made the decision on April 28, 2025, and "the procedure is continuing as laid out in our statutes," said the spokesperson.

Why is Huawei lobbying in Brussels?

The conflict over Huawei's lobbying role in Brussels is part of a much broader concern about the influence that Chinese companies -- and the Chinese government -- wield over crucial technologies like renewable energy, 5G telecom infrastructure, electric vehicle batteries and more.

What happened to Huawei in Brussels?

Huawei was a regular fixture in Brussels' lobbying circles for over a decade, throwing lavish parties, and was seen as a friendly entity in European policy circles. That changed in 2019, when Huawei came under the microscope over security and espionage concerns in its 5G mobile networks.

Did Belgian police search Huawei headquarters in Brussels?

Belgian police searched the Brussels headquarters of Chinese tech company Huawei and several homes in the country in a fresh corruption probe, with several arrests made in the case, according to prosecutors.

Police are said to have searched dozens of homes Thursday morning in Brussels, Belgium's regions of Flanders and Wallonia, and Portugal as a part of a covert operation.
