How do I sign in to Microsoft 365?

Open any Microsoft 365 or Office app such as Word and select Sign In. If you're already editing a file, go to File > New from Template... > Sign In. Open the Microsoft 365 or Office app. On the Account screen, tap Sign In. On the Sign In screen, type the email address and password you use with Microsoft 365 or Office.

How do I log in to Office 365?

Select File > Account (or Office Account if you're using Outlook). If you're not already signed in, click Sign In. In the Sign in window, type the email address and password you use with Office. This might be the personal Microsoft account you associated with Office, or the username and password you use with your work or school account.

How do I use Office 365 if I've been signed out?

To use Office on a device where you've been signed out, just sign back in. If you sign in to Windows using your work or school account, you'll be signed in to Microsoft 365 or Office automatically. On Macs and mobile devices, sign in using your work or school account to activate Office. Office remains activated as long as you're signed in.

How do I create a Microsoft 365 account?

If you're not already in a Microsoft 365 or Office file or document, open an app such as Word or Excel, and open an existing file, or create a new one. Select File > Account (or Office Account if you're using Outlook). If you're not already signed in, click Sign In. In the Sign in window, type the email address and password you use with Office.
